

Competency-Based Questions

Here is a list of competency-based interview questions that you could consider for your interview.

- 🔗 Describe a project you have worked on that required you to involve other departments.

How did you identify that need and how did you get buy-in to the project?

- 🔗 Give an example of a time when you delegated a task to the wrong person.

Why did you make the decision in the first place, what happened and what did you learn from it?

- 🔗 Give an example of a situation where you knew that a project or task would place you under pressure.

How did you plan your approach and remain motivated?

- 🔗 Give an example of a situation where you needed to influence stakeholders who had a different agenda to yours?

What approaches did you use?

Competency-Based Questions

- 👤 Describe a situation where conflict led to a negative outcome.
How did you handle the situation and what did you learn from it?
- 👤 Describe a situation where you had to get someone to improve their performance
What were the problems and how did you address them?
- 👤 Describe a situation where you felt that the conventional approach would not be appropriate.
How did you plan and manage a new approach?
- 👤 Describe an unpopular decision that you made recently.
What was your thought process in making it?
How did your colleagues react and how did you deal with their reaction?

Competency-Based Questions

- 🔊 Describe a situation when you had to communicate a message to someone knowing that you were right and that they were wrong and they were reluctant to accept your point of view.
- 🔊 Describe a situation where you had a disagreement or an argument with your manager or leader.
How did you handle it?
- 🔊 Describe a situation where you achieved success despite the odds being stacked against you.
How did you ensure that things worked out?
- 🔊 Give an example of a situation where you had to make a decision without input from key decision makers, but knowing that you would be judged on that decision.
- 🔊 Give an example of a time when there was conflict in your team.
What did you do to help to resolve the situation?

